begun and held at the City of New-York, on Wednesday the Fourth of March, one thousand seven hundred and eighty nine

THE Convention of a number of the States having at the time of their adopting the Constitution expressed a desire in order to prevent misconstruction or abuse of its powers that further declaratory and restrictive clauses should be added: and as extending the ground of public confidence in the Government will best ensure the beneficent ends of its institution

RESOLVED by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, two thirds of both Houses concurring that the following Articles be proposed to the Legislatures of the several States as amendments to the Constitution of the United States, all or any of which Articles when ratified by three fourths of the said Legislatures to be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the said Constitution, viz.

ARTICLES in addition to, and Amendment of the Constitution of the United States of America proposed by Congress, and ratified by the Legislatures of the several States, pursuant to the fifth Article of the original Constitution.

1st After the first enumeration required by the first Article of the Constitution there shall be one Representative for every thirty thousand, until the number shall amount to one hundred, after which the proportion shall be so regulated by Congress, that there shall be not less than one hundred Representatives, nor less than one Representative for every forty thousand persons, until the number of Representatives shall amount to two hundred, after which the proportion shall be so regulated by Congress, that there shall not be less than two hundred Representatives, nor more than one Representative for every fifty thousand persons.

2nd No law, varying the compensation for the services of the Senators and Representatives, shall take effect until an election of Representatives shall have intervened.

3d Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof, or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press, or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

4th A well regulated militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms, shall not be infringed.

5th No soldier shall, in time of peace be quartered in any house, without the consent of the owner, nor in time of war, but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

6th The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.

7th No person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the militia, when in actual service in time of war or public danger, nor shall any person be subject for the same offence to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb, nor shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself, nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law, nor shall private property be taken for public use, without just compensation.

8th In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury of the State and district wherein the crime shall have been committed, which district shall have been previously ascertained by law, and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation, to be confronted with the witnesses against him, to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have the assistance of counsel for his defence.

9th In suits at common law, where the value in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars, the right of trial by jury shall be preserved, and no fact tried by a jury, shall be otherwise re-examined in any Court of the United States, than according to the rules of the common law.

10th Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishments inflicted.

11th The enumeration in the Constitution, of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.

12th The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people.

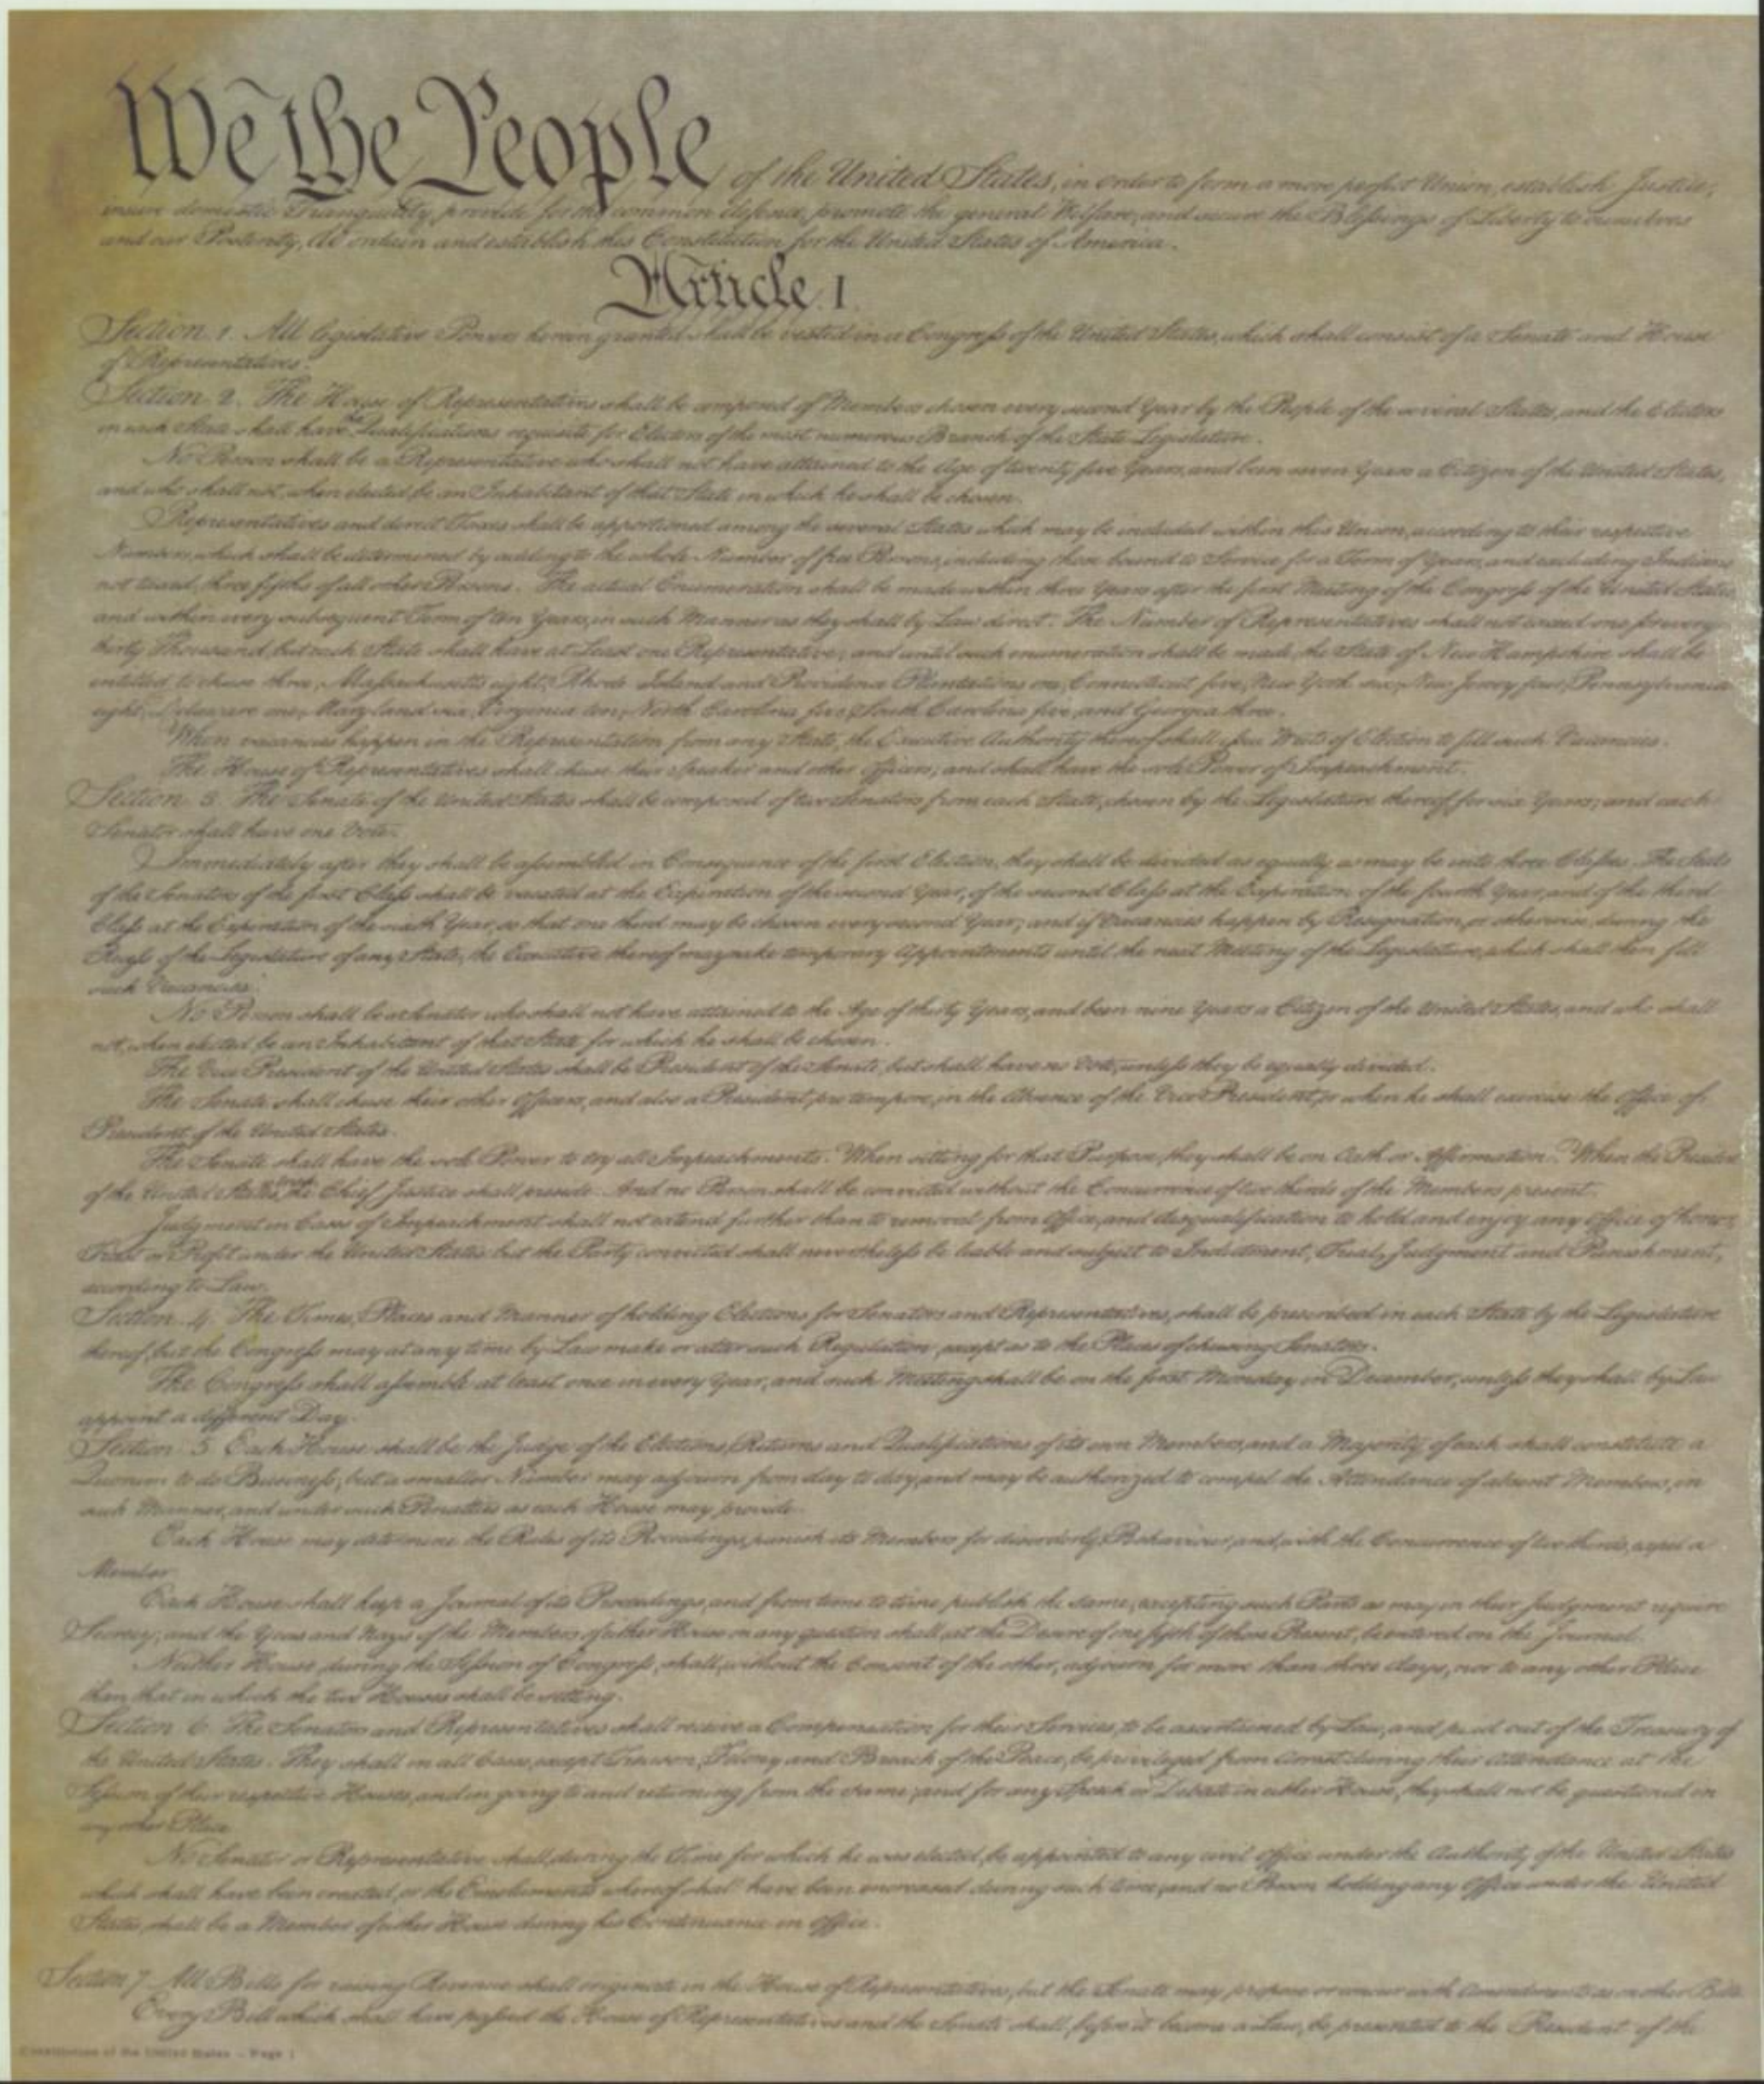
TEST.

Frederick Augustus Muhlenberg Speaker of the House of Representatives.

John Adams, Vice President of the United States, and President of the Senate.

Attest, John Beckley, Clerk of the House of Representatives.

this Constitution of the United States of America.



We the People of the United States, in order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common Defence, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

Article. I.

Section. 1. All legislative Powers herein granted shall be vested in a Congress of the United States, which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives.

Section. 2. The House of Representatives shall be composed of Members chosen every second Year by the People of the several States, and the Electors in each State shall have the Qualifications requisite for Electors of the most numerous Branch of the State Legislature.

No Person shall be a Representative who shall not have attained to the Age of twenty five Years, and been seven Years a Citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an Inhabitant of that State in which he shall be chosen.

Representatives and direct Taxes shall be apportioned among the several States which may be included within this Union, according to their respective Numbers, which shall be determined by adding to the whole Number of free Persons, including those bound to Service for a Term of Years, and excluding Indians not taxed, three fifths of all other Persons. The actual Enumeration shall be made within three Years after the first Meeting of the Congress of the United States, and within every subsequent Term of ten Years, in such Manner as they shall by Law direct. The Number of Representatives shall not exceed one for every thirty Thousand, but each State shall have at Least one Representative; and until such enumeration shall be made, the State of New Hampshire shall be entitled to chuse three, Massachusetts eight, Rhode Island and Providence Plantations one, Connecticut five, New York six, New Jersey four, Pennsylvania eight, Delaware one, Maryland six, Virginia ten, North Carolina five, South Carolina five, and Georgia three.

When vacancies happen in the Representation from any State, the Executive Authority thereof shall issue Writs of Election to fill such Vacancies.

The House of Representatives shall chuse their Speaker and other Officers; and shall have the sole Power of Impeachment.

Section. 3. The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two Senators from each State, chosen by the Legislature thereof, for six Years; and each Senator shall have one Vote.

Immediately after they shall be assembled in Consequence of the first Election, they shall be divided as equally as may be into three Classes. The Seats of the Senators of the first Class shall be vacated at the Expiration of the second Year, of the second Class at the Expiration of the fourth Year, and of the third Class at the Expiration of the sixth Year, so that one third may be chosen every second Year; and if Vacancies happen by Resignation, or otherwise, during the Recess of the Legislature of any State, the Executive thereof may make temporary Appointments until the next Meeting of the Legislature, which shall then fill such Vacancies.

No Person shall be a Senator who shall not have attained to the Age of thirty Years, and been nine Years a Citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an Inhabitant of that State for which he shall be chosen.

The Vice President of the United States shall be President of the Senate, but shall have no Vote, unless they be equally divided.

The Senate shall chuse their other Officers, and also a President pro tempore, in the Absence of the Vice President, or when he shall exercise the Office of President of the United States.

The Senate shall have the sole Power to try all Impeachments. When sitting for that Purpose, they shall be on Oath or Affirmation. When the President of the United States is tried, the Chief Justice shall preside: And no Person shall be convicted without the Concurrence of two thirds of the Members present.

Judgment in Cases of Impeachment shall not extend further than to removal from Office, and disqualification to hold and enjoy any Office of honor, Trust or Profit under the United States: but the Party convicted shall nevertheless be liable and subject to Indictment, Trial, Judgment and Punishment, according to Law.

Section. 4. The Times, Places and Manner of holding Elections for Senators and Representatives, shall be prescribed in each State by the Legislature thereof; but the Congress may at any time by Law make or alter such Regulations, except as to the Places of chusing Senators.

The Congress shall assemble at least once in every Year, and such Meeting shall be on the first Monday in December, unless they shall by Law appoint a different Day.

Section. 5. Each House shall be the Judge of the Elections, Returns and Qualifications of its own Members, and a Majority of each shall constitute a Quorum to do Business; but a smaller Number may adjourn from day to day, and may be authorized to compel the Attendance of absent Members, in such Manner, and under such Penalties as each House may provide.

Each House may determine the Rules of its Proceedings, punish its Members for disorderly Behaviour, and with the Concurrence of two thirds, expel a Member.

Each House shall keep a Journal of its Proceedings, and from time to time publish the same, excepting such Parts as may in their Judgment require Secrecy; and the Yeas and Nays of the Members of either House on any question shall, at the Desire of one fifth of those Present, be entered on the Journal.

Neither House, during the Session of Congress, shall, without the Consent of the other, adjourn for more than three days, nor to any other Place than that in which the two Houses shall be sitting.

Section. 6. The Senators and Representatives shall receive a Compensation for their Services, to be ascertained by Law, and paid out of the Treasury of the United States. They shall in all Cases, except Treason, Felony and Breach of the Peace, be privileged from Arrest during their Attendance at the Session of their respective Houses, and in going to and returning from the same; and for any Speech or Debate in either House, they shall not be questioned in any other Place.

No Senator or Representative shall, during the Time for which he was elected, be appointed to any civil Office under the Authority of the United States, which shall have been created, or the Emoluments whereof shall have been encreased during such time; and no Person holding any Office under the United States, shall be a Member of either House during his Continuance in Office.

Section. 7. All Bills for raising Revenue shall originate in the House of Representatives; but the Senate may propose or concur with Amendments as on other Bills.

Every Bill which shall have passed the House of Representatives and the Senate, shall, before it become a Law, be presented to the President of the

STUDENT LIFE

THE SPIRIT OF '76 LIVES IN

The Senior theme this year was Star Spangled Seniors. After a hard week's competition, the seniors marched away with second place. During the week, they came dressed as minutemen and in other colonial dress.

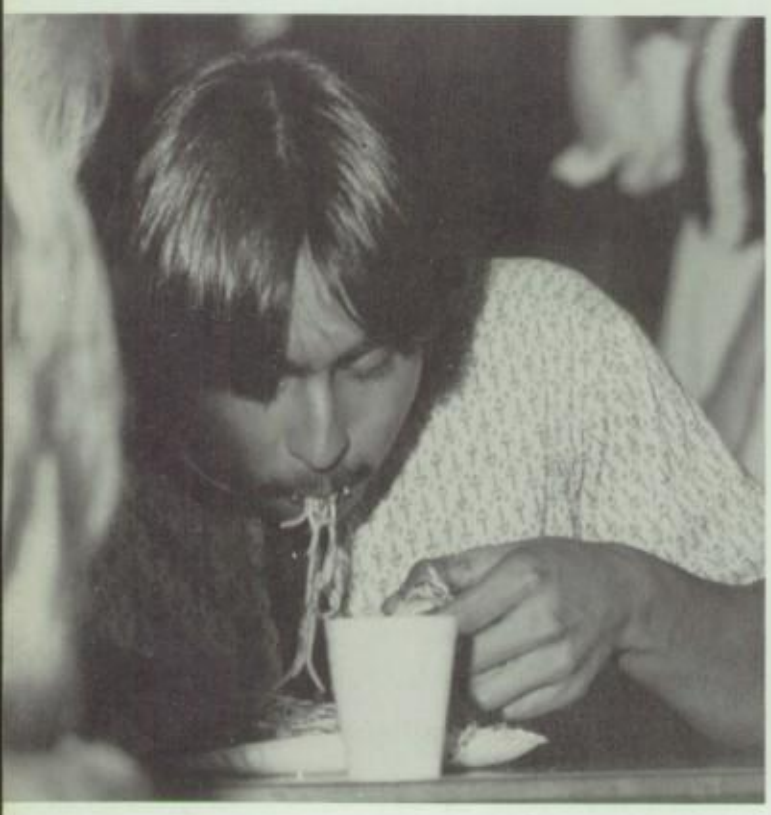
VICTORY FOR THE



Bev Dimas happily rides the Junior float.

JUNIOR ATHLETES

The theme, the Junior Athletes, proved to be lucky as the Juniors took first place. They dressed in many different ways such as skaters, baseball players and many other athletic uniforms.

THE GOLDEN AGE

The Sophomore Golden Age arose to third place this year. With Roman spirit they ceased the morning rallies. Dressing in togas, they glittered Tennyson with gold.

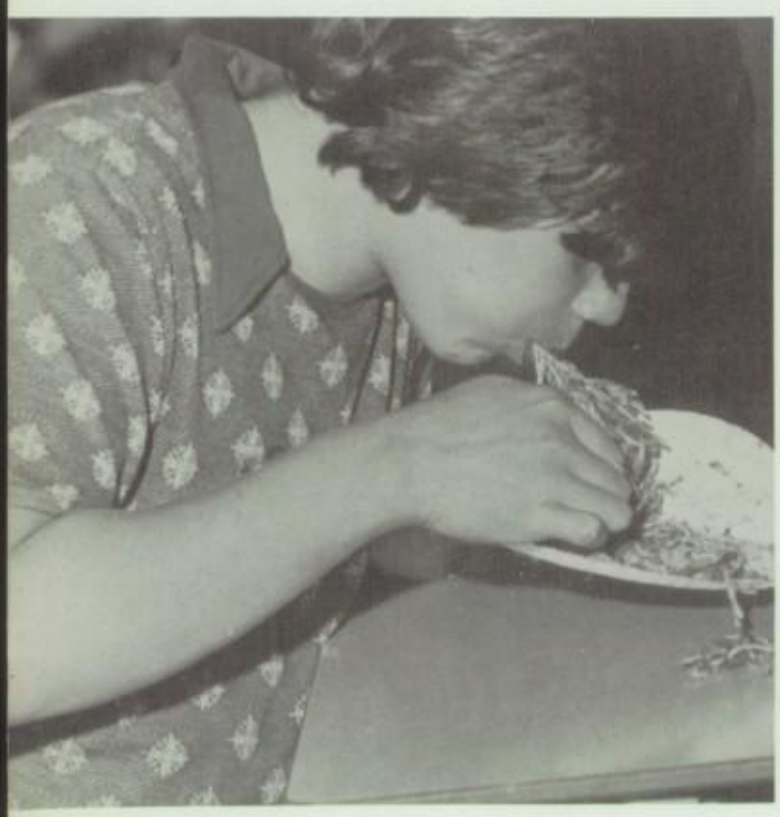
FRESHMEN



Tina Perry waves excitingly to her friends from the Freshman float.

FUTURAMA

The Freshmen of the Future invaded Tennyson with their color and spirit. They used their theme wisely by dressing as zerks resembling martians and computers. Though they tried hard, they took fourth place.

During Spirit Week, on Oct. 31, 1975, Senior girls challenged the Junior girls in a game of powderpuff football. Senior girls showed a lot of Spirit with a win of 8-6. The Junior coaches were Rick Silva, John Martinez, and Condo Martinez. The Senior coaches were Bill Burrell, Richard Judy, and Alan Hart.

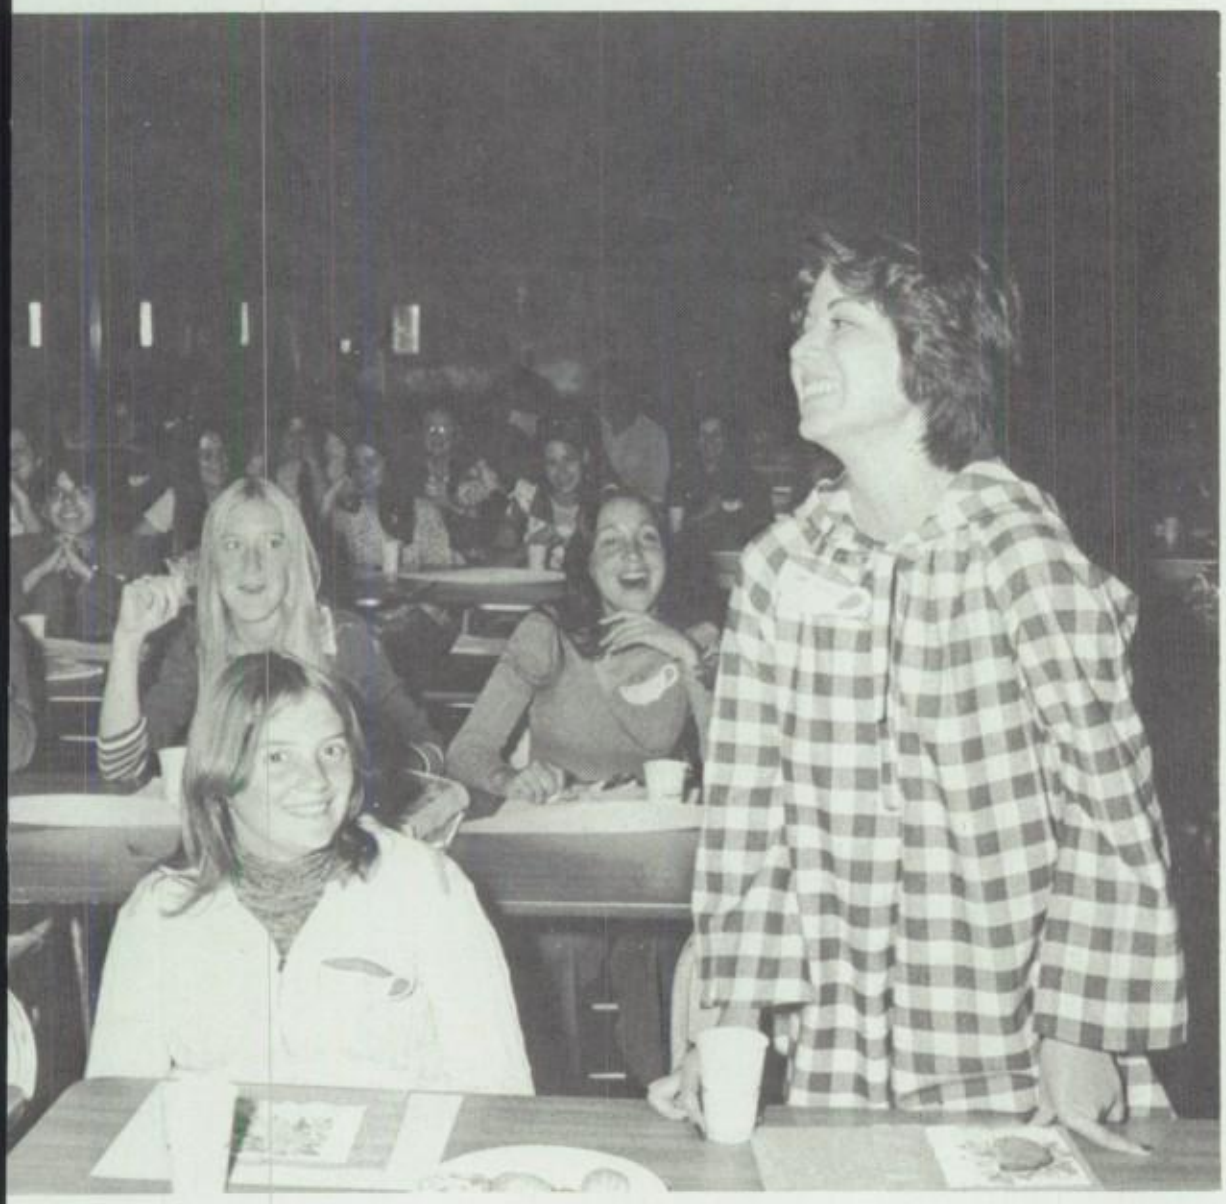
LITTLE SISTER TEA



The Big Sister Little Sister Tea was held in the cafeteria on Oct. 2, 1975. The little sisters were greeted by their big sisters with warm welcomes, punch and cookies. Claudia Heath, mistress of ceremonies, read the girls a poem about Tennyson. The big sisters entertained the little sisters with a skit about the twelve years of school. Some of the varsity football players showed up to answer questions about themselves, asked by the big sisters. It proved to be very amusing to all.

Our goal was to make the 1976 Aegis edition, with a bicentennial effect, a success. Many long hours were spent deciding captions, pictures, and copy. The staff members used much of their time collecting ads and taking pictures to organize page after page. With the co-operation of the faculty we were able to capture the students in action to show you what really goes on in the classrooms. With the inspiration from the yearbook advisor, Mr. Tootle, and the editors Sheryl and Diana the staff struggled through deadlines and strived to present to you this 1976 yearbook.

BLOCK "T" vs. FACULTY

Watch it buster!

This year's Block T, Faculty Basketball Game was a gruelling battle of strength and coaching strategy. The Block T strength circled around the 5'10" superstar player Mark Powell who was the Block T's leading scorer with 8 points. Other outstanding players were Dan Dimas, Alan Hart who both fouled out after punishing the Faculty with their strength. The Faculty which won 46-37 was led by a great coaching staff and Mike Kelly who had 10 points leading the Faculty to a victorious win over the hard fighting Block T.

CSF this year has done a very good job in fulfilling its motto, "Scholarship For Service." Among their activities were an initiation banquet, carnation sales, Christmas Caroling, selling cookbooks for faculty scholarships, Valentine greetings and the Tennyson High CSF day at "Great America" the new amusement park. The club had an enrollment of forty members. As a group the club visited college campuses close by for college preparation.

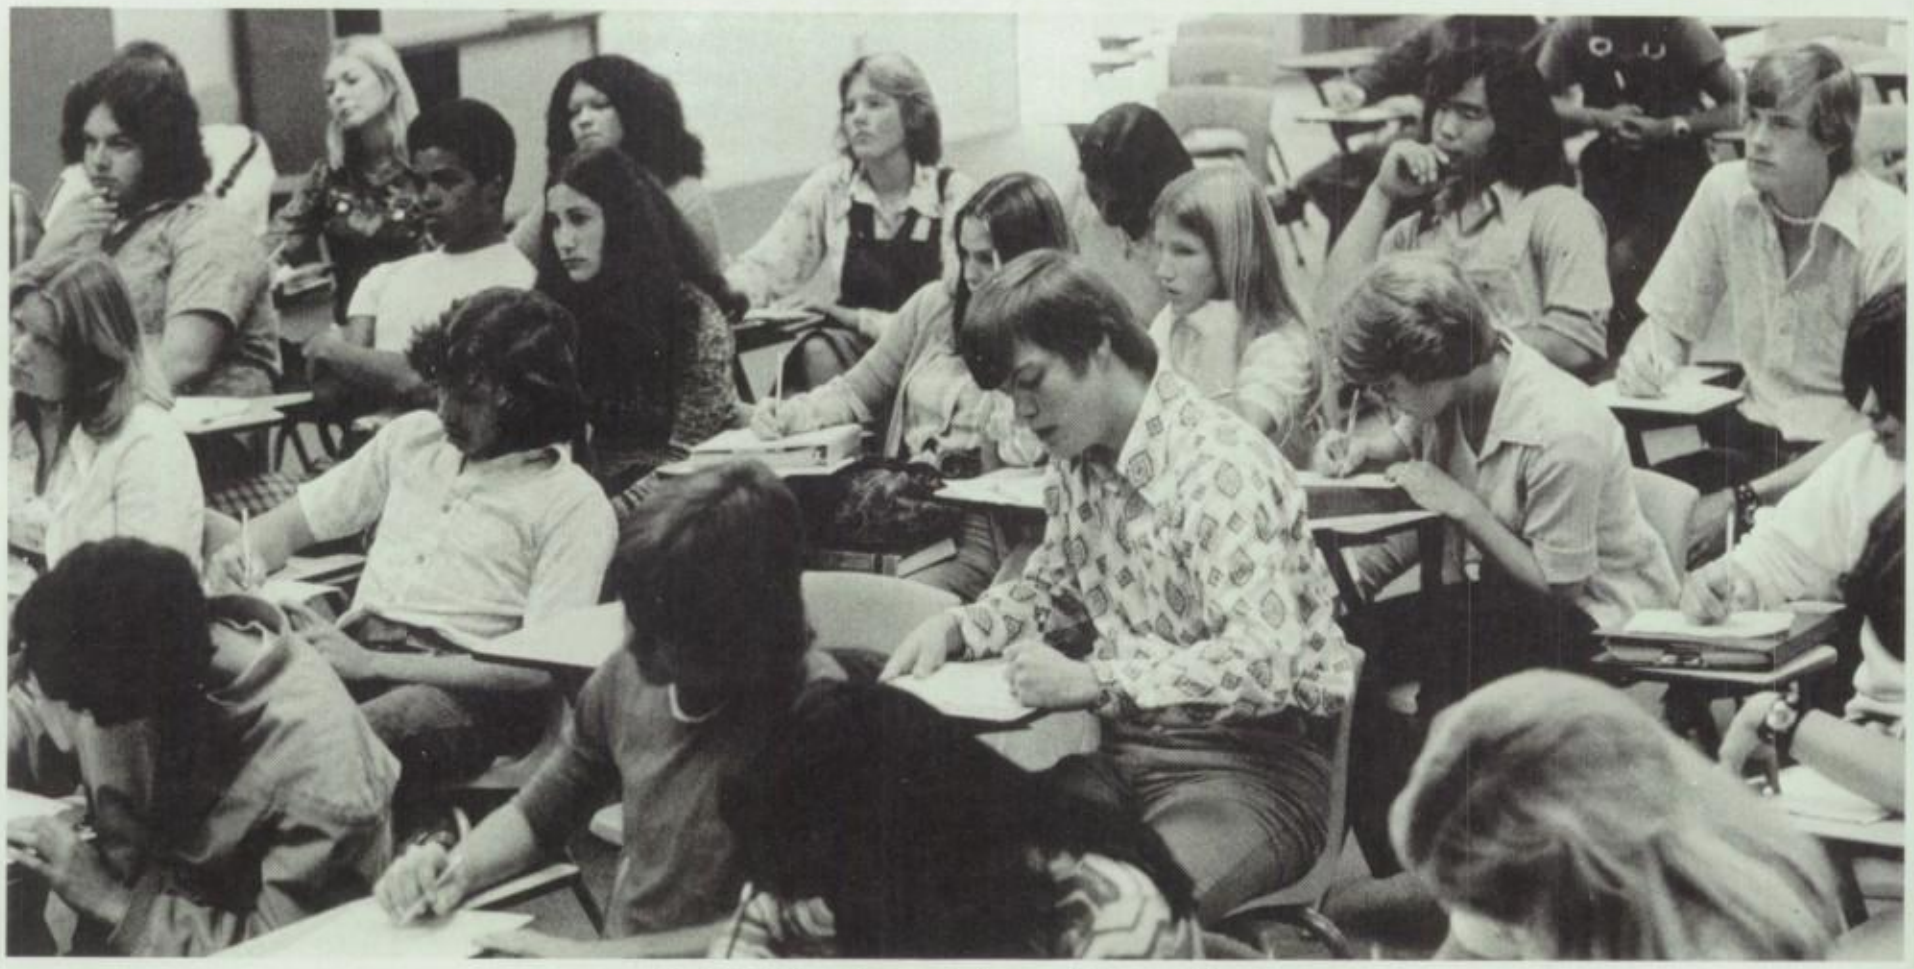
LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY SPEAKS



Representatives take minutes to report to history classes.

OUT FOR STUDENTS

Students listen attentively to speakers of Legislative Assembly.

Legislative Assembly is composed of elected officers. Representatives and alternates from each history class are also elected. They report back to their history classes and also bring up new legislation. Its function is to meet and discuss situations on campus, such as activities, and raising money for school funds. Mike Van Metre, under the advisement of Del Walker, did a wonderful job this year.

Principal's Message

As we conclude another school year we can look back with satisfaction on our accomplishments. School spirit has been high and participation in extra curricular activities good. Spirit week showed imagination, high spirit, and much work. Students continued to be involved on Curriculum Council and Administrative Council and to contribute significantly to these groups. By working together we can continue to improve our school.

Mr. Ronald G. Blake

THE ADMINISTRATION HOLDS TENNYSON TOGETHER

Vice Principal's Message

I would like to thank everyone at Tennyson for helping make my first year at Tennyson a memorable one. Each year students enter and leave Tennyson. But the memories that are stored away are with you forever. For those of you leaving, I hope all your remembrances of Tennyson are great ones. Those of you who will be back to continue your educational endeavors: I hope that you make good use of your stay, so that the memories you take with you when you do leave will be ones you can look back on with happiness.

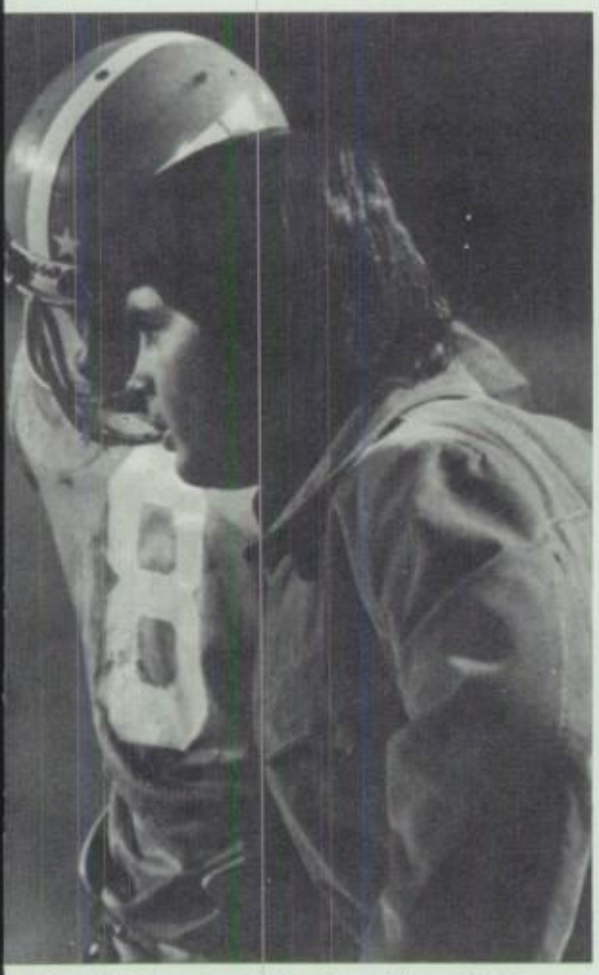
The Varsity Football Team finished with a strong 5-3 record. After losing the first 2 out of 3 games the team started playing and hitting like it knew how, only losing one more game which was to Sunset. The team finished strong in league, but could have had a chance for the Championship if an early whistle had not have happened in the loss to Mt. Eden. This year's team had three outstanding individuals. One is Roman Juarez who became the all time passing leader for Tennyson with 1,940 yards. Also John Fekete who is now the team's all time rusher with 1,721 yards, and second time All-League. Dan Dimas is second time All-League as the anchor of the Defense. John Fekete was named Most Valuable Player. Most Valuable Defensive Lineman was Dan Dimas. Most Valuable Offensive Lineman was Roger Fulk. Mark Powell won the Most Valuable Defensive Back, while Roman Juarez won Most Valuable Offensive Back. Billy Lessley won Most Dedicated for Defense and Greg Miller was Most Dedicated for Offense. All-Leagures for the second time were John Fekete and Dan Dimas. Roger Fulk and Billy Lessley were voted second team.



Coach Pickford sends Kevin Smith in with play.

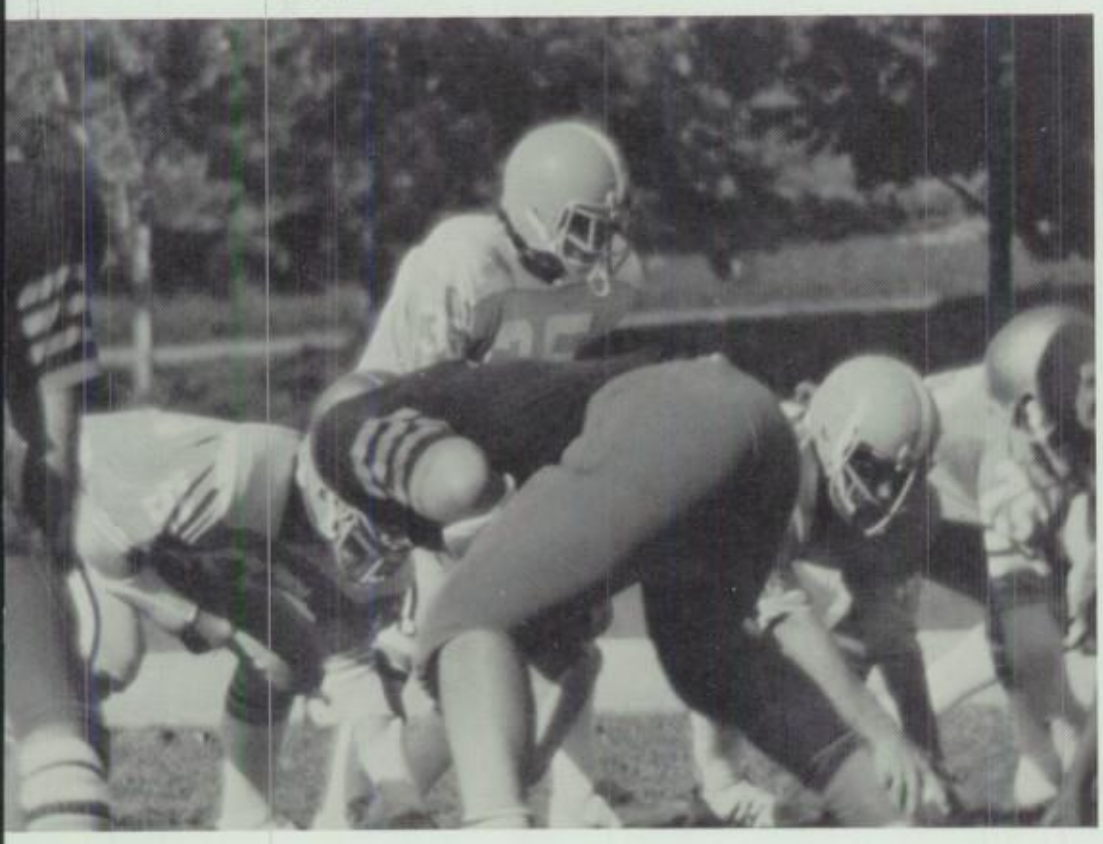
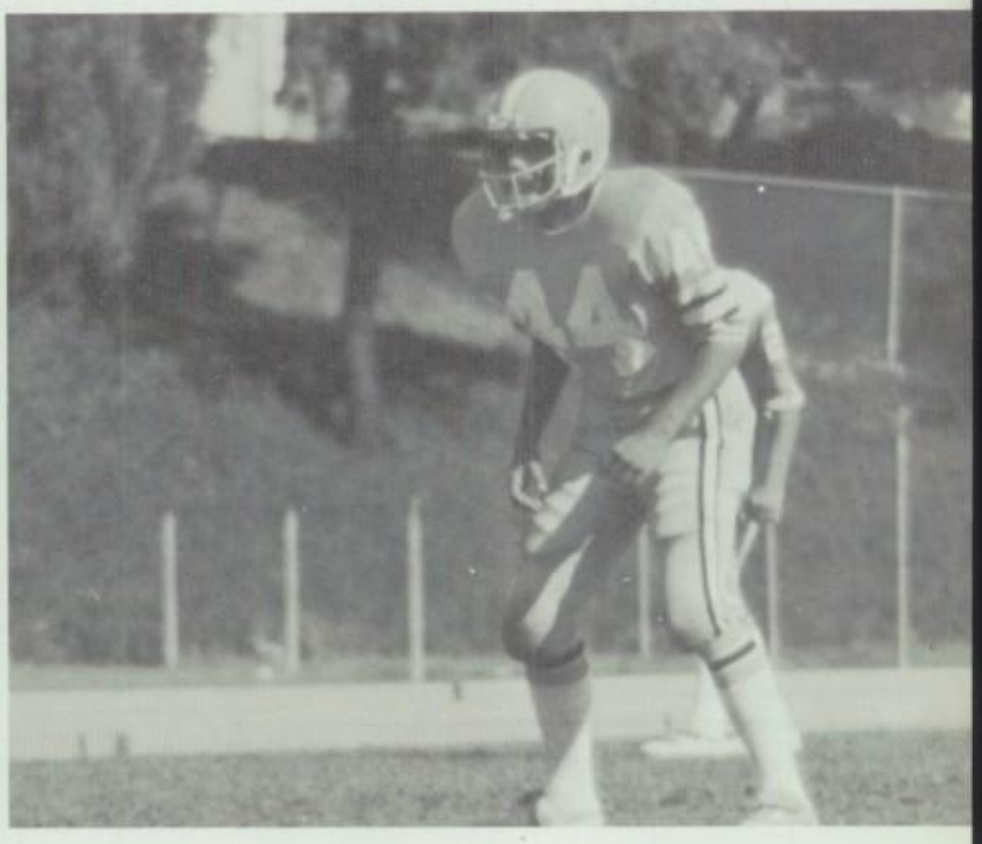
Coach Bill Caprasecca

Tennyson's Junior Varsity football team, under the fine coaching of Bill Caprasecca, had a very impressive year, winning five, losing three and tying one. The explosive Lancers came out in their first game and tore-up Moreau 46-0 and tied Castro Valley in their second. After being set-back by Hayward 33-0, the determined JV's blew away Mt. Eden 13-7, ripped up Marina 21-0 and took a forfeit from Canyon. The Lancers, unsure of themselves, dropped their next two games to Sunset, 14-0, and Arroyo, 29-6, but picked up a forfeit from San Lorenzo in in the last game which put the JV's fourth place in league.

The outstanding players were Cal Dixon, who was MVP on offense for his role as QB as well as RB, and Johnny Lugo, who played MLB and was voted MVP on defense.





John Veasy gets set to receive punt.

The Lancer team had a rather hard and unsuccessful season. They had bad breaks all season long, The team had the talent, but could not put it all together when it was needed. The team started out the season fairly, but couldn't put back to back victories together. They looked like they were starting to move after beating Canyon 29-6 to make their record 2-3. But then Sunset was just too much for the Lancer Frosh-Soph in a 42-14 loss. After that game the team could not put a victory together. The Most Valuable Offensive Player was Andre Cooper, who was the spark of the team. Darryl Butler, was MR. STICK on defense, along with Zac Hernandez got the Most Valuable Defensive Player award. The other standouts on the team were Jay Condie and John Demsdale on offense. Billy Dimas and Kelly Lessley were on defense.

This year's basketball team were rated 11th in the East Bay standings, the first time since 1960. They finished in third place with a league record of 11 and 5. They also played in the Pacific Grove and Healdsburg Tournaments receiving 2nd place in each. Kevin Bowers won the South County league in scoring with a 24.9 average and the H.A.A.L. league scoring with 24.1 average. Brian Keith broke the school record in field goal percentage with a 58.9, the old record was 54.0 percent. Coach Walker says, "This has been the finest group of young men I've coached since I've been at Tennyson. These men will be a positive influence in our changing society in years to come."

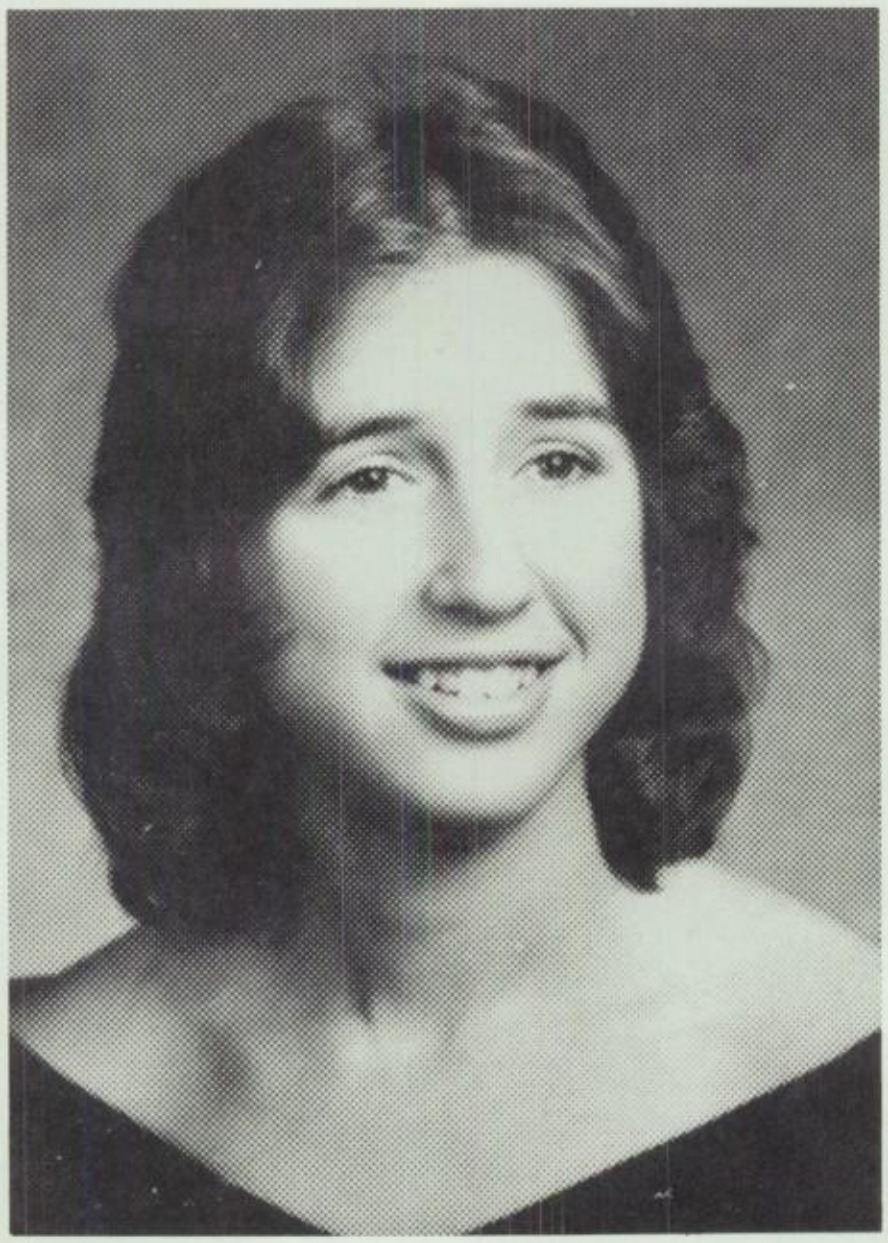
IN MEMORY OF AUDREY



It's been many months since you parted.
We remember you as young,
carefree,
and in love with life.
We have thought of you often,
but we have never seen or heard from you.
Where are you?
Are you happy?
Have there been many changes?
We have so many questions to ask.
Questions that have traveled with us as a companion because of your parting.
Someday . . .

"This is the beginning of a new day. God has given me this day to use as I will. I can waste it or use it for some good purpose. But what I do with this day is important because I have exchanged a day of my life for it. When tomorrow comes, today will be gone forever. I hope I will not regret the price I paid for it."-

Carrie,
It was nice meeting you & having you in English even though I hardly know you. You seem pretty cool. Have a fine time this summer.
See ya,
